

Crossing the Knowledge Fields
Sharona Florsheim and Tal Yizrael

The conversation will focus on artist and scientist collaborations that lead to new knowledge fields.

Sharona Florsheim and Tal Yizrael will share their experiences as artists and curators involved in long-term collaborations. They will share insights about enterprises, processes, failures, successes, revelations, and the significant role of mentoring throughout the collaboration process.